National Association of Blacks in Criminal Justice

The National Association of Blacks in Criminal Justice (NABCJ) is pleased to announce the observance of the 32nd Annual Conference and Training Institute in Dallas, Texas, July 17-21, 2005. This conference will attract criminal justice professionals from across the country that are interested in the serious issues facing our society and the corrections industry. Many conference attendees are in decision-making positions in some of the largest departments in the nation and will be shopping for the latest products and services to move their agencies into the future.

Exhibit and Resource Fair

We are inviting you to help NABCJ observe this conference by participating as an exhibitor. It will be an excellent opportunity for you to display or sell your products and/or services to conference attendees and the Dallas community. The Exhibit and Resource Fair will be held Sunday through Wednesday, July 17-20, 2005, at the Adam's Mark Hotel in Dallas, Texas, in conjunction with the 32nd Annual Conference and Training Institute

Attached is our Exhibit and Resource Fair application form. We are sure that the modest fee outlined in the application form will convince you that this is a tremendous opportunity to promote your interests, while at the same time demonstrating your support of NABCJ. Additional information related to exhibit space and the conference will be sent upon receipt of your application and fee. Exhibit space is limited, so please register early.

NABCJ is planning a great conference and would be happy to work with you to maximize your involvement. We look forward to your support. Space is limited. Registration is accepted through June 1, 2005.

On behalf of the National Association of Blacks in Criminal Justice and the National Black Police Association, you are cordially invited to participate in the 4th Annual American Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice Career Exposition

The Expo will be held on Sunday, July 17, 2005, and Monday, July 18, 2005, at the Adam's Mark Hotel in Dallas, Texas, in conjunction with the 32nd Annual NABCJ Conference and Training Institute. This will be one of the largest law enforcement and criminal justice career fairs in the nation. Recruiters from federal, state, and local law enforcement and criminal justice agencies are invited to participate. We expect more than 1,500 individuals who are seeking careers in the field of law enforcement and criminal justice. We invite you to become a part of this special event. Attached is our Expo registration form outlining costs and schedule of events.

Space is very limited so please register early. The registration fee and form must be received in our national office by close-of-business on June 1, 2005.

For more information about the Conference or other events please contact our office by phoning (919) 683-1801, or go to our website at www.nabcj.org.
