

Rallying the Armies of Faith, Justice, and Compassion

The National Association of Blacks in Criminal Justice (NABCJ) presents "To Serve The Present Age," a technical assistance guide to support interfaith mentoring and capacity building for programs working with adult/juvenile offenders and vulnerable youth populations. The publication is appropriate for general use by organizations, agencies, and more. It offers specialized guidance for programs which serve the needs of offenders and families of color. NABCJ also has a National Training Program with available consultants. For details, please call 703.765.4459.

Mission: To act upon the needs, concerns, and contributions of African Americans and other people of color as they relate to the administration of equal justice.

The National Association of Blacks in Criminal Justice is a multiethnic, nonpartisan, nonprofit association of criminal justice professionals and community leaders dedicated to improving the administration of justice. The Association was founded as a vehicle by which criminal justice practitioners could initiate positive change from within, while increasing opportunities for the average citizen to better understand the nature and the operation of our local, state, and federal criminal justice processes. Membership and participation in the activities of the Association are open to all, irrespective of race, creed, or country of national origin.

For NABCJ members, criminal justice is more than just a career; it is a commitment to a fundamental aspect of our democracy—justice.
