A National Challenge To A Semester and Summer of Service

40 Days: No Crime, No Violence

The PENITENTIARY (PEN) OR PENCIL:

National B.U.S. Boycotts, launched by the National Alliance of Faith and Justice (NAFJ) and other partners, expands the creativity of service learning by providing a template which values and links the sacrifices of history with opportunities to address pressing juvenile justice problems.

The 2008 B.U.S. Boycotts occur between the dates which mark the deaths of the Mother (Mrs. Rosa Parks) and the Leader of the Civil Rights Movement (Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.). Participants become change agents as volunteers who refuse to give up precious freedoms and refuse to conduct acts which contribute to imbalances within the criminal justice system such as negative contact with law enforcement.

Open to participation of all youth, Grades 5-12
